Our Mission

Healthcare Journal of Little Rock analyzes healthcare for the purpose of optimizing the health of our citizens.

About HJLR

Healthcare Journal of Little Rock operates within the auspices of US Healthcare Journals. Since 2007, US Healthcare Journals has set out to improve the health of local citizens through a community approach of shared information targeted to the healthcare industry. Other USHJ markets have won numerous state and national awards including the coveted Medical Media & Marketing's 2010 Silver Award for "Best Professional Media Brand."

Healthcare Journal of Little Rock's Chief Editor, Smith Hartley, brings 20+ years of experience as a healthcare leader in multi-specialty group practices, health insurance, and governmental agencies, as well as healthcare media. Alongside a Little Rock editorial advisory board, Mr. Hartley directs a team of talented healthcare journalists.

Healthcare Journal of Little Rock is committed to providing high quality healthcare news, information, and analysis. With an impressive publication, distribution plan, eNews, and searchable website, Healthcare Journal of Little Rock has staked a claim to this powerful niche of healthcare professionals, allowing Sponsors to reach the Little Rock healthcare industry in a way never before available.
